Hi everyone!

It's been a long time. I know you were all hoping for good news, but unfortunately I can't give you any. Traveler has now officially been cancelled—I'm so sorry! I know you guys deserve an explanation so here goes. The most I can say about it is that commitments were dropped and there was no one I could find to pick it back up. I know it doesn't really say much, but I hope you guys understand that I'd rather keep the specifics private.

As for the story of Traveler, I hope to come back to it and give it the run it deserves. I had most of the story already mapped out by the end and I hope to be able to tell it in the future. I will though answer the question many have you were dying to know—Yes, Nate and Carter get together! When I first wrote the two characters, I had already decided that they were bisexual. As for them getting together, that was still up in the air. After I had written the first chapter, I knew they just had to get together—their chemistry was too good!

By the end of the story I had written, the two remain together as they Travel more worlds, continuing their adventures. Hope that helps!

Hopefully, I'll see you guys in my next work!

You're all the best,

Eric R.
